

“Language of the Flower”

A Rengstorff House Exhibition

Depicting the study of flowers and their intended message, from a Victorian-era perspective

Botanical Prints ...
Early 20th Century Postcards ...
Pressed Flowers ...
Tussy Mussy Floral
Arrangements ... and More!

March 2 – April 28

Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Sundays
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

“Miniature Flower Arranging Workshop”

Monday, March 22

3:30 to 5:00 p.m. – OR – 6:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Hosted by American Rose Society Consulting Rosarian and Judge of Rose Shows and Fairs, Barbara Gordon, in cooperation with the City of Mountain View.

Provides an introduction to the Victorian language of the flower and hands-on demonstrations on three different styles of miniature flower arrangements.

Children 8+ and their accompanying parent/guardian are welcome to participate.

Please bring a pair of scissors or clippers, as well an appreciation for playing with flowers and plants.

$5 materials fee in cash or check paid to the “City of Mountain View.”

To register in advance, please call: (650) 903-6392. Space is limited, so sign up early.

Rengstorff House
3070 N. Shoreline Boulevard
Mountain View, CA 94043
(650) 903-6392